Do you have a awesome friend that you call your best friend? In the book Wonder by R.J. Palacio. Auggie, the main character strives to make a quality friend that he could call a best friend. I know that a lot of people would say that the more the friends the better but I truly believe that all you need is one or two good friends that you know like you for who you are I think that is all you need for a good life at school.

Altho there are plenty of qualities in a person that I may look for to be my best friend I think that the most important one is acceptance because when you have a problem and people bully you then you want a friend that you can go to and be accepted. that is why I have a friend that knows how crazy I can be and she accepts it and helps me when I don't know what to do and she does. I believe that the second most important quality in a friend is kindness because when your friend is not kind then they don't know how to treat you or anyone else and then they will get you and them into trouble and are mean to you. That is also why in the book Wonder by R.J. Palacio Auggie is struggling to make friends but he finds those two qualities in two different friends and their names are Jack and Summer and they are really good friends to him, or are they?

In conclusion just remember that all you need for a good life at school is one or two friends that you can really trust with your biggest secret instead of a lot of friends that you can't really trust that much. But Auggie finds friends with acceptance and kindness and they are Jack and summer.
