NISD Elementary Schools to Celebrate the 100th Day of School

Friday, February 3 marks the 100th day of school in Northwest ISD. From counting activities and parades to special guest Zero the Hero, elementary teachers in Northwest ISD have planned curriculum and activities structured around celebrating the 100th day of school. Following are scheduled events for the 100th day of school on February 3:

Beck Elementary School

Kindergarten students and teachers will dress up as 100 year-old people. The classes will participate in math games, read stories about the 100th day of school and make predictions of their appearance in 100 years.

Granger Elementary School

On February 3 at 8:30 a.m., kindergarten students will participate in a parade wearing 100th day costumes.

Justin Elementary School

Kindergarteners will construct a 100th day man, color in 100 squares on a grid, make a hat with 100 stickers on it, and enjoy a 100th day snack mix. Kindergarten teachers will surprise the students by dressing up as 100 year-old women.

Prairie View Elementary School

Kindergarten classes will attend the wedding ceremony of Zero the Hero on Friday, February 3 at 1:45 p.m.

Sendera Ranch Elementary School

During the morning assembly at 7:50 a.m., kindergarten students will march in a 100th day of school hat parade.

Seven Hills Elementary School

Kindergarteners will watch as Zero the Hero weds and leaves with her new husband on a four-wheeler. The ceremony begins at 1:30 p.m.

Thompson Elementary School

Thompson Elementary is using the 100th day of school to celebrate the halfway point for the campus' Million Word Challenge. Kindergarten students will partake in a 100th day hat parade. James Wand the Magician will perform a magic show at 8:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. in the cafeteria, and special guests including Principal Debbie Merki will perform magic tricks in the classrooms. In addition, students will make 100 boxes that will be donated to Emily's Smile Boxes. Tidwell Middle School student Emily Lites creates boxes of crayons, coloring books, stuffed animals and more and delivers them to children at local hospitals.
