History Comes Alive for NISD Middle School Students Holocaust Survivor Shares Experience with Eighth Graders

- WHO: Approximately 800 eighth-grade students from Northwest ISD's Chisholm Trail, Gene Pike and Truett Wilson middle schools.
- WHAT: NISD eighth-grade students will hear from Holocaust survivor Max Glauben after watching the first act of the Northwest High School theatre department's performance of The Diary of Anne Frank.
- WHEN: Wednesday, October 10
The performance will begin at 10 a.m., and Max Glauben will speak at 11 a.m.
- WHERE: Northwest High School
Vernon Solomon Performing Arts Center
2301 Texan Drive
Justin, 76247
- WHY: Holocaust survivor Max Glauben was only 19 years old when he moved to the United States. Glauben will share with Northwest ISD eighth-grade students his experience in the Holocaust, concentration camps and the loss of many loved ones during his one-hour testimonial. Students will experience literature, history and theatre and will preview the first act from The Diary of Anne Frank, a performance given by the Northwest High School theatre department.
- NOTE: If you plan to attend the event, contact Emily Conklin (817-215-0169) or Lesley Weaver (817-215-0056). If you plan to only attend the testimonial from Max Glauben, please arrive to the theatre by 10:45 a.m.
