Northwest ISD Presents “Far and Wide,”

An original play about a coming of age story celebrating the life and times of Wise County

Justin/Ft. Worth, Texas — “Far and Wide” is an original play that celebrates the life and history of the Wise County communities that are part of Northwest ISD. The play includes a cast of Wise County community members and Northwest ISD students.

“Far and Wide” tells the story of a family with school-aged children that moves into Wise County. Although reluctant about the move, the children soon discover a wealth of fascinating history about their new home and begin to realize that the people are what make Wise County a special place to live.

Along with the modern day setting, the play includes first-hand accounts by Wise County residents of historical events that helped shape the community. The play celebrates life in Wise County, both in the past and the present, and depicts the struggles and accomplishments of the community, including the formation of the Northwest Independent School District.

Audience members will enjoy an opening act by Wise County resident, and Northwest ISD graduate, Terry Soloman and his bluegrass band, Salt Creek. The event will be held at Chisholm Trail Middle School, 583 FM 3433, Rhome Texas, on November 15 and 16. Salt Creek will begin at 6:15p.m. and the play will follow at 7p.m. both nights. The show is free, but tickets are required due to limited seating.
