NISD's Michelle Pawski Named Principal of Seven Hills Elementary School

During a Special School Board Meeting on August 1, Superintendent Karen G. Rue, Ed.D. recommended Michelle Pawski as the principal of Northwest ISD's Seven Hills Elementary School.

"I am pleased to bring Michelle Pawski's name to the board this morning as the principal of Seven Hills Elementary School," said Superintendent of Schools Karen G. Rue, Ed.D. "Ms. Pawski is a strong instructional leader with a passion for helping students learn. She will continue a tradition of excellence among students, staff and the Seven Hills community."

Michelle Pawski is currently the assistant principal at Sendera Ranch Elementary School. She has served students and families in Northwest ISD since 2001 as a campus instructional teacher at Sendera Ranch and Sonny and Allegra Nance elementary schools, as well as a fourth grade teacher at Haslet Elementary School. Prior to a career in NISD, she worked in Weatherford and Huntsville ISDs.

"I am excited to continue serving the students and families of Northwest ISD," Principal Michelle Pawski said. "I look forward to being a part of the Seven Hills community and working with students, staff and parents."

Pawski earned her master's degree in elementary education/reading from the University of North Texas and holds a bachelor's degree in teaching from Sam Houston State University. She is currently participating in the National Institute of School Leadership (NISL) principal preparation program and serves as a campus instructional teacher mentor in Northwest ISD.

Pawski replaces Stephanie Espinosa, Ed.D. who was named the principal of NISD's Lakeview Elementary School in June.
