

News Release

For Immediate Release
January 10, 2014

Northwest ISD is Awarded the ASBO Meritorious Budget Award for the 13th Consecutive Year

The Association of School Business Officials International has awarded the Northwest Independent School District's 2013-2014 annual budget with the Meritorious Budget Award for excellence in budget presentation. This is the 13th consecutive year NISD has received this honor. The 2013-14 annual budget was submitted for rigorous review based on the ASBO criteria that focuses on the district's skills in development, analyzing and presenting of the budget. By applying for the MBA, you gain credibility for your district's fiscal responsibility, increase your school board's confidence in the budget, and save your district money. The MBA Criteria Checklist provides a foundation for developing a reader-friendly budget document that

- Presents clear budget guidelines.
- Promotes communication between departments and the community.
- Encourages short- and long-range budget goals.
- Supports effective use of educational resources.

Northwest ISD would like to recognize and congratulate Jon Graswich, Chief Financial Officer, and his team for such a wonderful recognition.

###