Northwest High School Student Bakes for Backpacks, Donated More Than 800 to District in Seven Years

WHO – Northwest ISD Partners in Education
Northwest High School Student Hayleigh Hutyra

WHAT – On Monday, August 1, Northwest High School Student Hayleigh Hutyra will be donating 160 backpacks for the annual NISD school supply drive. Hayleigh has provided a total of 816 backpacks since 2009 when she established Baking for Backpacks. Hayleigh bakes and sells cookies throughout the year to raise funds which she uses to purchase backpacks. They will be distributed to children in need at the Northwest Back to School Fair.

WHEN – Monday, August 1 at 9 a.m.

WHERE – Pike Middle School
2200 Texan Drive, Justin, 76247

WHY – Northwest ISD Partners in Education and United Way of Denton County are working together to organize the fourth annual Northwest Back to School Fair. It will be held on Saturday, August 13 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at Pike Middle School. School supplies will be distributed to children in need at the event where they can also receive books and resources, haircuts, eye exams, physicals, immunizations and more.

The Northwest ISD Partners in Education program creates school-support opportunities for parents, businesses and the community by offering a wide variety of options amenable to every schedule, talent and expertise. PIE brings volunteers into Northwest ISD classrooms at each campus and all grade levels. To learn more, please visit www.nisdtx.org.

If you would like to attend, please contact Phil Beckman at (817) 637-9188.
